FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Peter Prince to Release 4th Studio Album “Wright Before Your Eyes” on July 17th via High Wire Records

An extraordinary reunion with original Moon Boot Lover bandmates Alan and Neal Evans, featuring special guests Tim Reynolds, Dave DiCenso, and more.

LONDON, ENGLAND – July 7, 2026 – Veteran musician, electrifying guitarist, and soulful vocalist Peter Prince is thrilled to announce the release of his fourth full-length original album, “Wright Before Your Eyes.” The highly anticipated record drops on July 17th, 2026, through High Wire Records, the rock imprint of Vintage League Music.

“Wright Before Your Eyes” marks a monumental collaboration for longtime fans, reuniting Prince with his original Moon Boot Lover bandmates, the legendary brothers Alan and Neal Evans. Delivering everything from Prince’s signature high-energy “rocket soul” sound to thoughtful, heartfelt ballads, the album also features an impressive roster of special guests. Tim Reynolds (Dave Matthews Band) joins on guitar, alongside esteemed drummers Dave DiCenso and Mike Migliozzi. Laurence Scudder (Spotted Tiger, Ryan Montbleau) provides beautiful viola accompaniment, with Nick David rounding out the sound on harmonica.

Speaking on how this reunion came to be, engineer and collaborator Alan Evans shared:

> “This whole process began with a text I sent to Peter a few years ago. I was just checking in with him as we hadn’t talked in a long time. He invited me over to his house and while we were hanging out he played a song for me that he needed some help editing. Well, that turned into me mixing that song, then a few more songs, and then an entire album. I had such a great time working with Pete on this album. It was like no time had passed between us and his writing on this one is really spectacular. I can’t wait for everyone to hear this!!”

Adding a deep personal touch to the project, the album’s vibrant cover art was painted by Peter Prince himself.

About Peter Prince

Peter Prince is a highly respected figure in the American funk, soul, and rock scenes, boasting a career that spans decades of relentless creativity and musical exploration. In 1993, he founded the New York City-based cult favorite Moon Boot Lover. As the creator and driving force behind the group's genre-blending sound and high-energy live shows, Prince led the original power-packed "Rocket Soul" trio (featuring Alan Evans, Owen Yost, and later joined by Neal Evans and John Hawes) through multiple national tours. Although the original four-piece parted ways in 1997, Prince has carried the Moon Boot Lover legacy forward to this day.

Prince's career is defined by his collaborative spirit and deep musical versatility. He has performed, recorded, and shared stages with a staggering list of renowned musicians spanning pop, rock, funk, soul, jam-band, folk, bluegrass, and jazz. For several years, he also fronted the Muscle Shoals-influenced project Peter Prince and the Trama Unit. Fueled by songwriting sessions with guitarist/producer Johnny Trama, the project brought heavy hitters like Eric Kalb, Marco Benevento, Joe Russo, Paul Alstrand, Brian Thomas, and Gary Wicks together to knock it out of the park nightly.

Known for elevating every musical environment he enters, Prince blends soulful vocals, funk-rock-infused rhythms, blues and jazz-rooted guitar work, and improvisational freedom. A live Peter Prince performance is not just a show—it's an experience.

Today, Peter continues to write, record, and perform his original music regularly. Whether he is playing solo, performing as an acoustic duo with Chris O'Neill, or taking the stage with the current Moon Boot Lover lineup (Reed Dieffenbach on drums and Mike Gruen on bass), he brings his fresh, signature musical delivery to every audience.

"Wright Before Your Eyes" will be available on all major streaming platforms and for physical purchase starting July 17th, 2026.

Press Contact:
Peter Prince
pete@peterprincemusic.com
https://peterprincemusic.com